"We Bring Extraordinary Stories To Life"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE TO THE WOODFORD SUN, VERSAILLES, KY

"My Kentucky Home: Woodford County" Welcomes Two Visionaries for its First Underwriters

PRINCETON, KY—July 21, 2011—Marvo Entertainment Group LLC, an award-winning Kentucky film production company, continues to build momentum and support for "My Kentucky Home: Woodford County." Coming on board as the first underwriters for the project are Joe and Debbie Graviss of Graviss McDonald's Restaurants.

Presenting a check to demonstrate his support and enthusiasm for the project to Dona Wilson, treasurer of the Woodford County Historical Society, and Executive Producer, Sam Koltinsky, Mr. Graviss stated, "I'm supporting this project because I believe we all have a responsibility to help each other and our communities in which we live. This documentary can be used for all sorts of promotional pieces for making those of us who live here appreciate even more the preciousness of Midway, Versailles and Woodford County and the bounty we have been blessed with. It will also help to attract quality new people and jobs to our community to fill the hundreds of acres already zoned, platted and ready to go from every legal aspect to begin contributing to our government coffers for even better community services and educational opportunities than we already have."

Koltinsky expressed his appreciation by saying, "Marvo is so excited to have the support of visionary leaders like Joe and Debbie Graviss who recognize the positive economic impact that this documentary can generate for the county."

Koltinsky also reported that the Marvo team is on schedule in actively conducting research, capturing film footage of county events and landscape, composing original music scores for the documentary, and seeking underwriters for the show. He especially complimented the wonderful research that Dona Wilson has been providing along with a number of people from the community.

If you would like to be a part of this unique opportunity to showcase Woodford County by becoming an underwriter for this project, please contact either Sam Koltinsky at 270-625-6815 or sam@marvoentertainmentgroup.com or Dona Wilson at the Historical Society.

A Kentucky native, Koltinsky's work is inspired by a passion for stories, history, preservation, and the environment. Over the past 19 years, he has produced numerous documentaries in Europe and the United States, and has worked with PBS, the History Channel and the Documentary Channel. Upon returning to Kentucky in 2005, Koltinsky created the My Kentucky Home series in response to the "wonderful, compelling" stories of its people.
