Woodford County Historical Society treasurer Dona Wilson was presented the National Daughters of the American Revolution Historic Preservation Award at the Kentucky State DAR Conference held March 30, 2012, in Lexington. Wilson is a member and Registrar of the Versailles General Marquis Calmes Chapter KSDAR.

Linda Withers, National Chairman for Historic Preservation wrote “It was a pleasure to read about the commitment Dona Wilson has to historical preservation in Kentucky. Her work to preserve the Woodford County history through her books, publications, cemetery restoration and fund raising to support the historic preservation through the Marvo Entertainment Group documentary production of “My Kentucky Home – Woodford County” is a wonderful addition to the Daughters of the American Revolution’s goal of promoting Historic Preservation.”

The members of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution are dedicated to historical preservation, promotion of education, and encouragement of patriotic endeavor.
